

Estate Planning Deficiencies Check-Up

Did you know...?

If you don't have a valid will or trust, then state laws will determine how your assets pass, to whom they pass, and when they pass. This could lead to unnecessary estate and income taxes, your estate being consumed by creditors, your estate being tied up in probate court (possibly for years...), and other undesired results, and is perhaps the most costly and emotionally draining way to pass assets to your loved ones.

Circle One

Do you have a Will or a Trust in place?..... Yes No Don't Know

Even if you circled "Yes" above, Congress, state legislatures, and the courts are constantly changing the rule book. In fact, there have been several major estate and income tax law changes in recent years. Depending on your circumstances, an out-of-date estate plan might be missing valuable planning opportunities and could cost your family dearly in extra taxes and administration costs.

Has your Will or Trust been professionally reviewed in the last two years?..... Yes No Don't Know

Does your current Health Care Power of Attorney permit the person of your choosing (spouse, child, family) to make emergency health care decisions for you in the event you are unable to do so?..... Yes No Don't Know

Does your estate plan contain a customized plan to determine if you are mentally disabled? Yes No Don't Know

Does your current estate plan give instructions for your care and the care of your loved ones in the event of disability?..... Yes No Don't Know

Are you certain that your current estate plan will minimize possible federal and state estate taxes at your death, including taxes on your house, life insurance and IRAs? Yes No Don't Know

If you have a Revocable Living Trust in place as part of your estate plan, is your trust fully funded so that your family can avoid the delays and expenses of probate?..... Yes No Don't Know

Have you taken steps to avoid possible will contests and disputes during the administration of your estate?..... Yes No Don't Know

Does your estate plan protect your children's inheritance in the event your surviving spouse chooses to remarry?..... Yes No Don't Know
